ANGUS: You going to be okay?
MAE: I don't know. You know what frightens me the most?

ANGUS: Another hundred years of me snoring?

MAE: No. What frightens me the most is that I'm actually a little envious of Jesse.

ANGUS: Envious?

MAE: At least he's looking forward to something again.

ANGUS: Hey. I still look forward to you.

MAE: Do you? Sometimes it's a little hard to tell, these days.

ANGUS: Of course I do.
 Every day. Every year.

Tuck Everlasting

26 MILES: 27 28 29

Time. Time.

JESSE:

They can't make me tell her good-bye. I

MAE:

stop sit-ting won-der-ing why.

ANGUS:

We'll stop sit-ting won-der-ing why.

30 MILES: 31 32 33 34

I was left a-lone, left to drown in my prime.

JESSE:

won't be left a-lone, left to drown in my prime.

MAE:

I won't be left a-lone, left to drown in my prime.

ANGUS:

I won't be left a-lone, left to drown in my prime.

35 36 37 38 39 40 41

Rit.

Left with no-thing, left with no-thing, no-thing but time.
